Credit for Prior Learning for General Education Courses

Advisors and students may find the CPL Guide: Credit by Examination Options for General Education useful as they plan schedules.

This guide is available on the CPL website at <https://www.fhsu.edu/cpl/documents/CPL-Guide-2017.pdf>.

This document covers the general education program. It is intended to help identify methods of demonstrating course competency for a course the student may not need to take, and to help identify the course that students may have credit for from previous testing.

New General Education Option-- Literature Matters: The Literature of Protest!

Fall 2018: ENG 327--Literature Matters: The Literature of Protest

This course will examine representations of protests in fiction especially during the latter-half of the twentieth century and the twenty-first century, from Civil Rights marches and anti-Vietnam demonstrations in the 1960s to the 1999 WTO protests in Seattle. Throughout the course, we will explore the statement made by Richard Wright that “all literature is protest” by discussing the relationship of literature and protest. Readings include Sunil Yapa’s Your Heart is a Muscle the Size of a Fist, Dana Spiotta’s Eat the Document, Hari Kunzru’s My Revolution, and John Lewis’s March. MWF 9:30-10:20.

ENG 327: Literature Matters is a redesign of a General Education course based on how literary works engage overriding themes and confront social, political, or psychological issues that are not easily comprehended and require a broad understanding of the world and the ability to make connections among different disciplines. The course fulfills 3 hours of the Humanities distribution of the Gen Ed program, and each semester will offer new themes. No prerequisites and all majors welcome!

Encore Series presents: William Shakespeare's Long Lost First Play

Thursday, April 5, 2018 7:30 PM
Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center

In this “tale told by idiots,” the Reduced Shakespeare Company weaves every character and Shakespearean plot device together in a story so comically outrageous it’s no wonder it was hidden away. The play is so rich and overstuffed that in a stroke of genius Shakespeare decided to break it up into the thirty-seven plays we know today. William Shakespeare’s Long Lost First Play is a comic misadventure that will feel strangely familiar yet excitingly new.

Tickets are available at the Memorial Union Student Service Center, by calling 785-628-5306 or by visiting www.fhsu.edu/encore. Tickets for the general public are $30 reserved and $26 unreserved; for seniors and children ages 5-17, tickets are $28 reserved and $24 unreserved; and for FHSU students, tickets are $21 reserved and $17 unreserved with a Tiger Card.
